

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Office of the Director

Washington, D.C. 20535

December 14, 1987

LIA 4-5-SR
187-5506X

Lt. General Edward J. Heinz
Director of the Intelligence
Community Staff
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Heinz:

Although I have only recently become Director of the FBI, I have quickly learned of the invaluable service individuals such as you have provided to the FBI. I want to join my colleagues in expressing deep appreciation for your cooperation throughout the year and your support of our efforts in fulfilling our responsibilities to the American people. Your help has contributed to our success, and we are most grateful for your friendship.

With sincere best wishes for a successful and a Happy
New Year,

Sincerely,

Bicentennial of the United States Constitution (1787-1987)

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Office of the Director

Washington, D.C. 20535

December 14, 1987

ICS # 87-55263
LIA 4-5-SR

Lt. General Edward J. Heinz
Director of the Intelligence
Community Staff
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Heinz:

Although I have only recently become Director of the FBI, I have quickly learned of the invaluable service individuals such as you have provided to the FBI. I want to join my colleagues in expressing deep appreciation for your cooperation throughout the year and your support of our efforts in fulfilling our responsibilities to the American people. Your help has contributed to our success, and we are most grateful for your friendship.

With sincere best wishes for a successful and a Happy
New Year,

Sincerely,

Bicentennial of the United States Constitution (1787-1987)